The Planning Association of Washington (PAW) invites you to join us for our Annual Spring Planning Conference—Navigating Currents of Change—April 9th and 10th. Our conference will be held at the Semiahmoo Resort located on the Northern Puget Sound Shoreline in Blaine and overlooking Semiahmoo Bay and Drayton Harbor. This day and a half conference will feature sessions on a variety of land use planning topics including (in part):

- + Planning for Climate Change
- + Tribal Government to Government relationships
- + Planning Legal Cases Update
- + Economic Strategies for Revitalization
- + Walkable Communities
- + Puget Sound Partnership
- + PAW/CTED's "SHORT COURSE ON LOCAL PLANNING"

Full conference programs with registrations forms will be sent out the last week of January. Please make your hotel reservations now for April 8th and 9th to take advantage of Semiahmoo's government rate of $70 per single/100 per double at 1-800-770-7992.

Questions? Contact Brian Frampton at bframpton@wenatcheewa.gov. To register for the early bird conference rate of $200 (available until March 13th), contact Andrew Estep at pawoff@aol.com.
